

Key Dates

6th February 1918	Votes for Women
6th December 1865	Abolishment of Slavery
June 2006	The Animal Welfare Act

Important People

Emmeline Pankhurst	She organised the British suffragette movement.
Mary Lowndes	Chair of the Artists' Suffrage League.
William Wilberforce	A British politician who led the movement to abolish the slave
Frida Kahlo	An artist who depicted the issue of freedom within Mexico
Chris Sherwood	Chief Executive of RSPCA

Vocabulary

Campaign	A series of planned actions carried out in order to reach a particular goal.
Controversial	Ideas that cause arguments
Captivity	Being held prisoner, locked up or caged.
Extinct	No longer existing
Suffragette	A woman seeking the right to vote through organised protest.
Justice	The upholding of what is fair and right.

BIG QUESTIONS

Has the fight for freedom and equal rights for all humans been won?

Should animals have the same rights as humans?

Progression Map Objectives

Geography I can describe and show an understanding of rivers linking to the key places I study.

I can study the settlements and land use of the key places that I study

I can study the economic activity, distribution of natural resources of the key places that I study.

History I can place features of historical events and people from past societies and periods in a chronological framework.

I can summarise the main events from a specific period in history, explaining the order in which key events happened.

I can summarise what Britain may have learnt from other countries and civilizations through time gone by and more recently.

I can communicate knowledge and understanding orally and in writing and offer points of view based upon what I have found out.

Art I can use my sketch book so it contains detailed notes, and quotes explaining about items.

I can compare my methods to those of others and keep notes in their sketch

I can adapt and refine my work to reflect its meaning and purpose, keeping notes and annotations in my sketch books.

DT I can use a wider range of materials and components including textiles and ingredients, according to their functional properties and aesthetic qualities.

I can evaluate if different resources would have improved my product.